

Milpitas Community Library

www.baya.org

May 22, 2007

Next meeting:

July 24, 2007
9 a.m. – 12 p.m.
Hayward Library
835 C Street
510.293.8685

School Visits:

Share your experiences,
good and bad, gaining access to students in schools.

Summer Reading Programs

Teresa Parham of Pleasanton Library is having the High Strung playing at Pleasanton. The PTA also had a program that featured beads which changed color when exposed to UV rays. The beads are featured on <http://www.stevespanglerscience.com/product/1350>

Sarah Neeri and Don Phillips of the Santa Clara County Library both were having the Wizard Rock Groups Roonil Wazlib (local artist) and Dumbledore's Army play at their libraries.

Fremont is featuring Harry and the Potters this summer
Paul De George of Harry and the Potters is at cell # 1-617-276-7951

Marie Richardson of Mountain View Library is having a vote for new manga series contest.

Brandi Bette Smead of the Benicia Library is revamping summer programming BINGO card, has created a Banned Books Committee for teens, trying to include bigger prize in addition to the traditional skateboard deck that is given as the grand prize every year.

Karin Lundstrum of the Alameda Free Library held a Summer Reading Club Poster contest.

Other Topics

BAYA Yahoo Group-- http://groups.yahoo.com/group/baya_librarians/
All members are encouraged to join this group to keep track of events at each other's libraries, get updates, have book discussions and get programming ideas.
Link + was discussed by the librarians as a method to make interlibrary loans process easier for patrons. For more information see <http://csul.iii.com/>

Urban Lit Presentation by Miranda Doyle

The Powerpoint presentation and handout that Miranda Doyle provided can be found here <http://www.teenlibrarian.com/streetlit/>

Main Points

- Review sources for Urban Lit.
- Appropriate place in the collection.
- Central and important works.
- Chronology on the development of the genre.
- Where to find out more and to keep track of new releases.